SWAP YOUR CAR THIS WEEKEND

Don't miss this special event at Chapelhouse

Trading in your tired old wheels for a more exciting model becomes easier and cheaper than ever.

Here at Chapelhouse, we love giving our customers great deals, so if you are looking to change your car, we are offering a simple, catch free way to do so, without leaving you out of pocket.

Our Car Swap event runs right across the Chapelhouse group, meaning you have a range of over 700 new, nearly new and quality used vehicles to choose from. Many of our cars also come with a host of added extras as standard, including our fantastic 'free MOT test for life' offer.

The process is simple, just take your car down to Chapelhouse, and enjoy a hot drink on us, while one of our friendly salesmen works out the best possible price we can give you for your car. Once we've worked this out, you can take a look around the site and pick the car you'd like to take home. Each car will be reduced and priced to sell, so simply deduct the price of your car from the price of your new car, and that's all you have to pay. That means there's every chance you will walk away with a new car for nothing!

To make a great deal even better, just £50 will secure any vehicle you like. No other dealer can boast an offer this good, so make sure you take a trip down to Chapelhouse during this Car Swap event and get yourself a new car from as little as £0!

CAR SWAP HOW IT WORKS...

1. We shall close early on 22nd January in order to prepare for Chapelhouse the Car Swap nine day event.
2. We will fully prepare over 1000 new, nearly new and used vehicles and line them up for you to browse around.
3. The price of every car will be reduced and PRICED TO SELL!
4. The Car Swap price will be whitewashed on to every car windscreen.
5. You will be able to see the saving from the original price which will still be on the car.
6. When you arrive and after making your choice of tea, coffee or hot chocolate your car will be valued.
7. You will be given a written valuation on a signed form stating how much we will give you for your car.
8. Pick the car you most desire and either do a straight swap depending on the valuation of your car or pay the difference.
9. Once you have decided on a swap, simply take your valuation form to any one of the Chapelhouse Car Sales Executives who will complete the necessary documentation. You will also be able to take advantage of special finance packages during the event, including interest free credit.
10. Finally £50 will reserve any car in the Chapelhouse Car Swap

MOT FOR LIFE

There is no other car dealer in the United Kingdom that will allow you to swap your existing car for another one and give you a FREE MOT TEST for life!

"I swapped my old 107 for a new Hyundai i10 with loads of extras and it only cost me £500 and with FREE MOT for life" Sarah Payet

Well Chapelhouse are doing exactly that with every New or Used car purchased throughout their Car Swap Event.

Chapelhouse will carry out a Free MOT test each year for the life of the car and even if you sell the vehicle we can transfer this over to the new owner. Bargain!

This great opportunity can save you up to £1000 over the life time of the vehicle.

Get down to Chapelhouse and take advantage of not only a newer vehicle but a vehicle with FREE MOT Test for life, it's that simple!!

"We swapped our Ford Mondeo for a top of the range Citroen Picasso and it's hard to believe it only cost us £625." The Taylor Family

OVER 50 CONVICTS APPLY TO BE TEACHERS

By CHRIS AMERY

@ChrisAmery2

More than 50 convicts have applied for teaching positions in St Helens in the last three years.

Violent thugs, benefit cheats, thieves, dangerous drivers and arsonists have all applied for teaching jobs across the borough since January 2012.

One convicted thief applied to be a deputy headteacher.

Two other prospective deputy headteachers had convictions for possession of cocaine and drink driving on their records.

In total, 52 St Helens teaching applicants were found to have 105 criminal convictions between them by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) between January 8, 2012, and January 7 this year.

The DBS provides background checks on adults who apply to work in sensitive roles.

One applicant tried to gain work as a teaching assistant despite having convictions for theft and wilfully assaulting a child aged under 16.

Another would-be teaching assistant had a conviction for assaulting a police constable.

Among the applicants vetted by the DBS for full teaching positions were people convicted of drink driving, affray, deception, theft and driving while disqualified.

One aspiring teacher had 12 convictions for possessing fake goods for sale or hire, while another had seven convictions for producing false documentation.

Lower your speed & get yourself in shape

By ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

Town hall chiefs are set to create a series of 20mph zones across the borough - and say the move will help boost residents fitness levels!

Zones will be created on the Burnage Avenue estate and Forest Road area of Bold, the Concourse Way area and Gaskell Street areas of Parr and the Ravenstone Drive area of Sutton.

But funding for their creation has come from an unlikely source - the council's public health team.

That's because research shows traffic speeds are a major factor in deterring people, particularly women and children, from walking and cycling.

It's hoped by enforcing slower speeds, more people will get on their bikes and get moving.

Coun Seve Gomez-Aspron,

A series of 20mph zones are set to be created in Parr, Sutton and Bold cabinet member for environment and neighbourhoods, said: "Very often it's simply peoples' perceptions of injury risk that deters them from walking or cycling - or letting their children go to school on their bike.

"Lower traffic speeds create better perceptions of safety and, of course, reduce the actual danger too. People with limited or restricted mobility also find access and travel to places less restrictive in areas with slower speed limits."

Coun Andy Bowden, cabinet member for public health and wellbeing, added: "By reducing the speed limit to 20mph, we hope it will provide more opportunities for walking and cycling in these areas - and increase levels of physical activity."

Objections to the new zones must be made in writing to the council before February 12.

Will the owner of the marooned white van please call for help...

By NATALIE WALKER
natalie.walker1@jpress.co.uk
@NWalkerWIG

"I took a wrong turn boss, honest..."

This is the moment a digger made a rescue attempt to salvage a St Helens man's van from being swallowed up by the sea.

James Grayson, 30, decided to enjoy his lunchtime break by taking a drive on the beach – only to end up being marooned in the sea.

After driving down a concrete stretch at Starr Gate, James ended up on the beach and before he could turn round, the dad-of-two realised he was stuck in the sand.

James, who works for A&M Energy Solutions, said: "In my job, we go from house to house so in between two jobs, I decided to go see the beach as a break.

"I was going to park up but because there was a car behind me, I went down the concrete stretch to move out of the way."

Once James realised the

A digger had to rescue James Grayson's van van was not moving, his first thoughts were to laugh and think about the trouble he might be in.

He said: "I just started laughing, I thought about how my boss is going to kill me but I haven't spoke to him yet.

"Everyone else at work has just laughed and can't believe what has happened."

After getting out of the van, James suddenly realised things were about to get worse with the tide coming in fast.

He said: "The tide was coming in so quick that it was up to the floor of the van in no time.

"I was asking any passers by with their dogs to help tow it out."

Panicking, he called a number on a warning sign at Starr Gate advising who to contact for help.

After an hour of being stuck in the sand, a digger turned up to eventually help tow the van out of the sea.

James, from St Helens, said: "The water had gone above the level of the wheel by this point, the waves were rocking the van back and forth.

"I got in the sea myself and helped push, the waves were that powerful they were knocking me over."

Amazingly James managed to get the van started once all the water was flushed out and drive it back to St Helens.

He said: "I've driven back in my wet trousers, it's somehow working OK, although I imagine I will be in the boss's office tomorrow morning."

'Town is bucking housing trend'

The number of houses being built in St Helens is set to return to pre-recession levels, council chiefs say.

They say 644 new homes went on the market last year - the highest since 2008.

Figures also show a quarter of those properties were classed as affordable housing.

"We're bucking the trend and achieving our best figures since the recession," said St Helens Council's Cabinet Member for Regeneration, Housing, Planning and Community Safety Councillor Richard McCauley.

"We are delighted to see this upturn in the number of new homes."

Increase in winter flu jab vaccinations

By ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

St Helens has one of the highest uptakes of flu jabs in Merseyside, new figures reveal.

More pensioners and pregnant women have taken steps to protect themselves over the winter months than anywhere else in the region.

The borough also has the second highest uptake for children.

Health chiefs say the upsurge followed a series of innovative public health campaigns urging vulnerable groups to get themselves protected.

Liz Gaulton, St Helens Council's director of public health, said: "Working together, the council and the CCG have been able to highlight the importance of protecting our residents - particularly those in vulnerable groups - against the flu virus.

"Getting a vaccination helps people to stay healthy during the winter months and helps prevent the spread of infection among family, friends and work colleagues."

Coun Andy Bowden and public health's Dymna Edwards

Among the new approaches, health chiefs asked youngsters to come up with ideas for a poster promoting flu jabs.

The campaign comes as hospital casualty departments come under increasing pressure.

So-called "bed blocking" - caused by delays to patients' transfers to other care settings - hit an average 4,200 beds a day, its highest point this winter and higher than at any point in the winter of 2013/14.

Health minister Dame Barbara said: "With severe weather warnings across the country, we continue to urge people - particularly the elderly - to stay warm and look after themselves.

They should ensure they have proper medication, get their flu jab if they have not yet done so."

Council backs cig packaging ban

Health chiefs in St Helens have backed government plans to outlaw branded packaging on cigarettes. The ban, if it is voted through Parliament, will include other tobacco products. Coun Andy Bowden, cabinet member for public health, said: "This announcement is not before time. If the regulations become law, it will be a major step forward."

Pioneering op set to transform lives

By CHRIS AMERY
chris.amery@jpress.co.uk
@ChrisAmery2

A top doctor at a hospital in St Helens has become one of the first in the region to perform a pioneering knee replacement.

Mr Ravindra Gudena, a consultant at Fairfield Independent Hospital near Billinge, performed a complete ConforMIS knee replacement on patient Ken Kerr.

The procedure involved using state-of-the-art 3D printing technology and CT scan images to create a made-to-measure implant designed to perfectly fit the size and shape of the patient's bone.

Such was the success of Mr Kerr's knee replacement, Mr Gudena has already confirmed more ConforMIS procedures for 2015.

Typically, an off-the-shelf knee replacement requires bone to be removed, but removing bone can increase the chances of any complications during surgery.

But a ConforMIS knee replacement is designed to be identical to the original knee, resulting in little or no implant overhang - one of the main causes of residual pain and patient dissatisfaction.

First the patient has a CT scan to produce a 3D representation of the knee. The design of the replacement joint is then based on what engineers can see on the scan.

Next, a mould is made to the specific design, using 3D printing technology.

From the mould the engineers construct the bespoke implant using a plastic called polyethylene and a metal alloy known as cobalt chrome, both hard-working materials.

The 3D engineers also print out the jigs - a small bespoke plastic instrument that slot on to the knee and show exactly where the bone has to be cut - improving accuracy

'This type of knee replacement has unique advantages' and meaning fewer cuts are needed.

Mr Gudena said: "ConforMIS patient-specific implants are a significant advance over the currently available systems. This type of knee replacement has unique advantages of bone preservation, less blood loss and quicker recovery.

"The patients can get to the activity levels they used to with no limitation as the ConforMIS Knee replacement has a natural knee feel."

Mr Ravindra Gudena used a pioneering surgical technique on patient Ken Kerr

Backlash at unmanned primary's crossing

St Helens primary has been left without a school crossing patrol after its regular lollipop man was signed off sick.

Parents at Sherdley Park School on Mill Lane, Sutton, were told last Wednesday (January 21) the school's crossing would be unmanned for at least the new few days. It is believed the school's lollipop man was injured after slipping while off-duty.

A number of parents took to Facebook to express their concern that no definite timescale for a return to a manned crossing has been given.

The town hall spokesman added: "Unfortunately the regular school crossing patrol who covers Mill Lane near Sherdley Primary School is currently on sick leave - but will return as soon as he is fit.

"As a matter of course the first day of any absence is automatically covered by a colleague."

'We must never forget lessons of Holocaust'

By CHRIS AMERY
chris.amery@jpress.co.uk
@ChrisAmery2

Holocaust survivor Tomi Reichental spoke movingly about the wartime atrocity to schoolchildren and dignitaries in St Helens yesterday.

The 79-year-old Belsen concentration camp survivor shared his life story to mark Holocaust Memorial Day - the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz.

A number of events took place across the borough to mark the day, culminating in a service at the town hall where mayor Geoff Pearl, wearing a kippah, lit a candle to remember the millions who lost their lives during the Holocaust.

Mr Reichental, who lost more than 30 members of his family in the Holocaust, spoke about his early life growing up on a farm in Slovakia before the persecution of the Jews began to turn his childhood sour.

Mayor Geoff Pearl lights a candle for those who perished

He said: "In 1941 I had to have a yellow star stitched into my lapel. It was the first time I realised I was being treated differently from the other children - they would insult me and spit at me for being Jewish. I was only six years old.

"For two years me and my family lived in tremendous fear. We used to hide when the police came knocking but never knew when they would surprise us.

A pin could be heard to drop as Mr Reichental then described the horrendous conditions at the Belsen concentration camp.

"It was hell on earth," he said. "We lived from day to day just aiming to survive. The temperature would get down to -25 in winter and we were restricted to a diet of about 600 calories a day.

"I was just skin and bone when the camp was finally liberated and had to be put in hospital because I was in such bad shape."

While Mr Reichental's story is from the past, it resonates today too - warning of the dangers of racism and intolerance.

"The Holocaust didn't start with cattle wagons and gas chambers," he added, "but with whispers, taunts, daubing and then abuse and murder.

"One of the lessons we must learn is to respect difference and reject all forms of racism and discrimination."

St Helens was one of 70 sites nationwide selected to receive one of the symbolic candles - commissioned by the Sunday Times - along with Anne Frank's Memorial Garden, Chester Cathedral and Liverpool Town Hall.

Convicts apply to teach

Others, who applied to be teaching assistants, had convictions including battery, assault occasioning actual bodily harm and shoplifting.

One even had a conviction for arson on their record.

Another, a prospective trainee teacher, had no less than six shoplifting convictions.

A spokeswoman for the DBS was unable to confirm whether any of the applicants were subsequently employed.

But she said: "The protection of children and vulnerable groups is of paramount importance. Nonetheless, it is important that employers do not just rely on checks by the DBS to make their recruitment decisions."

A council spokesman said: "If an individual is successful in their application for a post requiring disclosure, they are required to authorise the council to apply for disclosure."

50 new jobs at homes

Fifty care jobs are set to be created in St Helens.

Home Instead Senior Care need to appoint more carers to help care for people in their own homes.

Julia Smith, of Home Instead, said: "We are receiving more and more calls from local people and family members looking for home care, and our business has grown significantly as a result.

"We consider our fantastic caregivers as everyday superheroes - they are everyday people doing extraordinary work.

"Whether they are providing companionship care, preparing meals, or helping with daily living routines, they are making a difference to the lives of the elderly."

She added: "For people with no prior experience, we provide a full training programme so anyone who is interested in a rewarding career should get in touch. It is the unique and high-quality, personal service that has allowed us to grow so quickly and create these jobs."

Council pledge over damning report

By CHRIS AMERY
chris.amery@jpress.co.uk
@ChrisAmery2

Town Hall chiefs have pledged to act after Ofsted inspectors published a damning report into the council's children's care services.

Watchdogs found that the authority is "not yet delivering good protection and help and care for children, young people and families".

They gave St Helens Council's children's services a "requires improvement" rating.

A nine-strong Ofsted team of inspectors, who spent three weeks in St Helens last November, found that early help services did not support some children soon enough to prevent their situation from getting worse.

They also found that too many children were subjected to child protection enquiries and that the achievement of looked after children was "poor".

Adoption was also not achieved quickly enough for some children, too many care leavers were not in education or training and domestic violence services for children and their families were described as "underdeveloped".

The report does, however, confirm that the minimum requirements are in place.

Coun Sue Murphy, (pictured) the council's cabinet member for schools and lifelong learning, said: "We're under no illusions that more improvements need to be made - but it is also the case that children in St Helens are safer today than they were when the last inspection was undertaken in June 2012."

"The new inspection framework is considerably more challenging and we note that no local authorities in the North West region have been judged to be 'good' since its introduction."

'We will, of course, be complying fully with the report'

The report praised the council's support for newly qualified social workers, its shortened care proceedings (24 weeks - against a national average of 31 weeks) and the help it gives to adopters.

It also approved of the council's direct work with children and individual therapeutic interventions - such as play therapy - to support adopters.

Ofsted say the council's immediate priorities should include ensuring that the "profile, aspirations and education attainment" of looked after children and care leavers are raised.

Coun Murphy added: "We will, of course, be complying fully with the requirements of the report."

Inspectors blasts Link facility

A children's centre in St Helens has been branded 'inadequate' by Ofsted.

Inspectors blasted Central Link's governance, leadership and management and questioned why so few local families were using its facilities.

However, the report said a newly-appointed team of managers had already begun making improvements to the town centre facility.

Council bosses said cuts in funding were to blame for the faltering service.

Coun Sue Murphy, cabinet member for schools and lifelong learning, added: "We are under no illusions that big improvements need to be made at Central Link, but the fact is that we have had to make huge savings throughout the service. We have been forced to make major changes to the way we operate and this has resulted in some disruption."

Dave knows 1930s discipline is tough

A probation officer is on national TV screens as part of a programme going back through the history of law and order to Bring Back Borstal.

Dave Jackson, from Garswood, is taking part in the programme, currently being shown on ITV1, which took 13 former young offenders back to experience the tough regimes of a 1930s correctional institution.

The 43-year-old, who now lives in the Republic of Ireland, donned his tweed jacket and tie to become one of the house masters at the recreated borstal, which was set up in a castle in Northumberland.

He said filming, which took place over four weeks last August and September, was a real culture shock for the offenders and staff alike, with basic facilities and food, 17-hour days and long stretches of work in the community. The inmates at the borstal, who had all been in court and whose sentences ranged from ASBOs to several years in prison, had to wear uniforms and submit to the tough discipline of the institution's chief, house masters and matron.

Dave Jackson was recruited to act as a housemaster in a TV borstal

Dave says it is this practical aspect of being in a borstal which today's system for dealing with young offenders could learn from.

He said: "The old borstals made sure the guys weren't just sitting in their cells, they were active, learning a skill such as woodwork, carpentry or painting and decorating. They spent their time learning a trade.

"The old borstals were also the centre of the community. That sense of giving something back is definitely missing in dealing with today's young offenders."

Dave has spent more than 20 years in the prison and probation services having been inspired to join by the officer who helped him when he was a young man in trouble.

● Bring Back Borstal is on ITV1 on Thursdays at 9pm.

Crucible boss arrives and Telethon appeal

Here's what was hitting the headlines in the St Helens Reporter 25 years ago this week.

Plans to site an NHS 50-bed special nursing home within the town took another knock.

St Helens Council objected to area health authority plans to build a unit within the grounds of Eccleston Hall Hospital.

As the area in question was crown land, the council could not refuse planning permission - but could still raise objections.

Town Hall chiefs claimed the proposal was "premature".

In other news, a former head of marketing at Sheffield's Crucible Theatre was appointed the new manager of Church Square Shopping Centre.

Leslie Gleghorn was born and bred in the north east and was planning to move to the area from his native Co Durham.

He said: "I have always enjoyed shopping centre management because of the broad base of skills involved."

Elsewhere, long service and good conduct medals were awarded to five St Helens police officers.

The medals, presented by the Lord Lieutenant of Merseyside, H E Cotton, was given after 22 years' service.

The local officers were among 48 Merseyside policemen and women saluted.

And finally, one of the town's most popular fundraisers appealed for the people of St Helens to dig deep into their pockets for ITV's Telethon 1990.

Lady Pilkington was one of 12 trustees for the marathon appeal, which raised more than £2m nationally in 1988.

"Everyone gave so generously for the Children in Need appeal," she said, "and it would be marvellous if they could do the same again."

Saints beat Liverpool Stanley 32-15 at Knowsley Road in the opening game of the War Emergency League season in 1940-41.

The Saints line-up was pictured before the kick-off while the Second World War raged in Europe's battlefields.

Alongside an unknown supporter, the back row includes: Bradbury, "Porky" Davies, Harrison, Twist, Garner, Finney, and the head coach Dolan.

Councillor's deselection will not be probed

By ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

Senior Labour party officials will NOT investigate the controversial deselection of a popular St Helens councillor.

Coun Geoff Almond was ditched from his party's ticket for the town centre ward to make way for Carole-Ann Gill, the niece of ex-council leader and would-be MP Marie Rimmer.

After the Reporter exclusively revealed the decision, a number of voters contacted this newspapers to express their disgust at Coun Almond's treatment.

Many demanded the decision to nominate Ms Gill be annulled and signalled they would register a complaint with the party's senior officials.

A local Labour spokesman said the decision not to re-select Coun Almond was made within party rules by the town centre and West Park ward senior membership.

And a Labour spokesman said the regional party had not been made aware of any complaints about Coun Almond's treatment.

"Local election selections are a matter for local parties and the regional party is not aware of any complaints in this instance," the spokeswoman added.

Coun Almond, who would have celebrated 40 years since he was first elected office in May, had expected that as a serving councillor he would automatically be named as the town centre's Labour candidate in May's local elections, as is normal practice.

Sitting councillors are normally put forward unopposed from within the party - unless they are performing extremely poorly. Coun Almond is, by common consent, one of the borough's hardest-working councillors.

Ms Gill represented the town centre ward but stood down citing health reasons.

Crews tackles rubbish blaze

Firefighters were called to a blaze involving a large pile of rubbish.

Crews were called to an area of open ground near Hall Lane in Prescot at about 6.15pm last Friday (January 23).

A large quantity of combustible waste, including timber, was well alight when they arrived.

A digger was used to disperse the waste material and hose reels were used to extinguish the deep-seated blaze.

Fire crews remained at the scene until about 11am the following day. No was injured.

Police impersonator banned from school

An IT worker from St Helens has been ordered to stay away from a borough school after dressing up as a policeman and harassing young girls.

Martin Brunt, of Caldly Grove, Blackbrook, bought a fake uniform and handcuffs before approaching teenage girls outside St Augustine of Canterbury High School and accusing them of smoking.

The 28-year-old told one of the youngsters he would "take her into the van" after she denying any wrongdoing.

Brunt has since lost his job after he was arrested last June and admitted impersonating a police officer and handed a 14-week suspended jail term.

He was also hit with a two year restraining order and given a criminal Asbo banning him from approaching a child in a St Augustine's uniform or going within 50m of the Boardmans Lane school.

Kick smoking into touch

Smoking is set to be banned from the touchline after a number of sports clubs in St Helens signed up to a new health programme.

Fans and players will all be prohibited from lighting up on the touchline.

The move is part of a campaign - dubbed Smokefree Touchline - by St Helens Council's public health team.

Clubs to have already signed up include Newton-le-Willows Sports Club, Parkdale Sidac, Blackbrook juniors, Carr Mill Bears, Newton FC, Thatto Heath Crusaders, Rainford Juniors FC and West Park RFC.

The initiative, co-ordinated by St Helens Council Sports Development Team and St Helens Public Health, involves representatives from each club attending a smoking cessation workshop, delivered by the St Helens Smoking Cessation team to enable them to help supporters and members who may want to quit smoking.

The anti-smoking campaign

Coun Andy Bowden, cabinet member for public health and wellbeing, and assistant director of public health Dr Dymna Edwards presented participating clubs with Smokefree signs that identify them as a supporter of the campaign.

Coun Bowden said: "This is a very significant step forward, with clubs reinforcing the message that smoking really has no place in an environment where fitness and health is so important."

It is the latest move by public chiefs to help more St Helens smokers quit the habit.

They are also backing calls for a ban on smoking in vehicles carrying children.

Meanwhile, nationally, branded packaging is set to be outlawed.

STAY WARM, STAY WELL THIS WINTER

Dr Stephen Cox
Clinical Chief Executive
(NHS St Helens CCG)

As the temperature drops, NHS St Helens Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) and St Helens Borough Council are encouraging local people across the borough to ensure they stay warm and stay well.

Cold homes can have a significant impact on health. In 2013 - 2014, there were 18,200 excess winter deaths in England and Wales - approximately 14,000 were amongst those aged 75 and over.

Dr Stephen Cox, Clinical Chief Executive (NHS St Helens CCG) said: "Keeping warm over the winter months can help prevent colds, flu or more serious health conditions such as heart attacks, strokes, pneumonia and depression.

"And the risk increases if you are over 65, have pre-existing respiratory problems or if you are on a low income so unable to heat your home adequately but there are steps you can take to reduce the risk of falling ill."

Help your neighbours in winter

Check on older neighbours or relatives to make sure they're safe and well. Make sure they're warm enough, especially at night, and have stocks of food and medicines so they don't need to go out during very cold weather.

St Helens Council's Director of Public Health Liz Gaulton added: "Please check up on friends, relatives and neighbours who may be more vulnerable to cold weather. Cold weather is especially dangerous for older people or people with serious illnesses, so check in on them if you can as they are prone to hypothermia.

"Hypothermia happens when a person's body temperature drops below 35°C (95°F). Normal body temperature is around 37°C (98.6°F). It's usually caused by being in a cold environment such as living in a poorly heated house and particularly affects frail and older people."

The condition can quickly become life threatening and should be treated as a medical emergency. People with heart or respiratory (breathing) problems may have worse symptoms during a cold spell and for several days after temperatures return to normal.

Follow these simple tips to keep warm and well during spells of cold weather:

- Draw your curtains at dusk and keep your doors closed to block out draughts.
- Have regular hot drinks and eat at least one hot meal a day if possible. Eating regularly helps keep energy levels up during winter.
- Wear several light layers of warm clothes (rather than one chunky layer).
- Keep as active in your home as possible.
- Wrap up warm and wear shoes with a good grip if you need to go outside on cold days.
- If you have reduced mobility, are 65 or over, or have a health condition such as heart or lung disease, you should heat your home to at least 18C and make sure you wear enough clothes to stay warm. It's a good idea to keep your bedroom at this temperature all night.
- If you're under 65 and healthy, you can safely have your house cooler than 18C, if you're comfortable.

St Helens Council, Age UK Mid Mersey and many other local organisations are working together to help vulnerable residents keep warm and well during the winter months.

A limited number of Winter Warmer packs are still available and contain a calendar, hat and scarf, thermal mug, LED torch and more. To find out how to get a pack contact the St Helens Cold Weather Advice Line - set up to assist people through the winter months and which is available up to the end of March 2015.

If you need any information or advice keeping warm and healthy this winter or to request a Winter Survival Pack - call the freephone number on 08000 355 878

We all save together

Homeowners in St Helens are being invited to take part in a new round of collective switching to see how much they save on their energy bills.

The Switch Together, Save Together scheme is run by local charity, Energy Projects Plus, and is backed by St Helens Council. It is estimated that the average resident could save around £200 annually. More details from 0800 043 0151.

Tyres pass safety test

A survey of garages in St Helens selling part-worn tyres has found they pass tough safety tests.

Trading standards officials said tyres purchased from five separate garages were all roadworthy.

Only one was stamped with the words 'part-worn', as they required to do by law, however, none were being sold as new.

Coun Seve Gomez-Aspron, cabinet member for safer communities, said: "In tough economic times many motorists may be tempted to fit part worn tyres - so it's essential that these tyres are safe."

Brigade launches new boy's group

The Boys' Brigade has launched a new company in St Helens.

The 1st St Helens Company was launched this month courtesy of an informal "get to know" evening.

Places are available now for boys aged between eight and 15 to join its junior and company sections.

The group, which meets at the Ormskirk Street United Reformed Church, offers a full range of activities including games, competitions, arts and crafts, sports and badge work.

Iain Paul, captain of the 1st St Helens group, said: "We're delighted to have launched a new company in St Helens and hope to welcome new members over the coming weeks."

"By engaging with young boys through a programme of fun events and activities, which support the development of skills for life, we aim to make a difference to their lives, as well as to the local community."

Distribution firm wins top title for sixth time

A St Helens firm has been named HARTING distributor of the year for the sixth time.

The electrical and electronic component manufacturer named Northern Connectors its Specialist Distributor of the Year for 2014.

Northern Connectors, a specialist distributor of industrial cable, connectors and components based in St Helens, was formed in 1983 and has been distributing HARTING products for more than 15 years.

The company had previously won the award in 2002, 2003, 2007, 2011 and 2013.

'DELIGHTED'
Northern Connectors general manager Scott Jones said: "We are delighted to have received this award for the sixth time, and would like to thank HARTING for their continued support."

"This honour highlights how dedicated we are - we pride ourselves on providing quality products and technical expertise to our customers and, at the same time, building close working relationships with manufacturers."

Angela Maishment, of HARTING, said: "Northern Connectors have had another excellent year in developing their HARTING business in the UK."

"Their commitment to offering customers the highest level of service and technical support has been a key factor in their success."

"I congratulate them on receiving this award."

Brazen theft stole outside station

A theft posing as a police officer stole a car that was advertised for sale.

The brazen crook made off with the vehicle from a street near to Prescot police station.

He had earlier phoned a salesman at a local garage saying he was interested in buying a car and asked if they could meet by the station so he could have a colleague to check over the car.

A police spokesman said: "When the salesperson arrived at around 2.45pm, the offender was waiting at some flats next door to the police station and was stood next to a Vauxhall Corsa.

"He was not wearing a police uniform. He asked to take the Focus to the police station next door where someone was going to check it over for him. He then drove off in it and didn't come back.

The incident happened on October 2.

Det Insp Andy Milligan, said: "The offender posed as a police officer and claimed he wanted to part exchange the Corsa for the Ford Focus Titanium which was white and had a Vehicle Registration of ML13 VZB.

"I would appeal to him, or anyone who recognises him, to get in touch with us as soon as possible."

Witnesses should call CID on 0151 777 6567.

Man hurt in pile-up

A man was hospitalised following a two-car crash.

Emergency crews were called to Catchdale Moss Lane in Eccleston shortly before 8am last Friday (January 23).

One of the vehicles involved collided with a wall and the male driver in his 20s was taken to Whiston Hospital for checks.

A 50-year-old woman, who was driving the other vehicle, was checked over by paramedics at the scene but did not require hospital treatment. Firefighters were at the scene for about 40 minutes.

Mixed list of Labour candidates

By Andy Moffatt
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

The shortlist to replace Dave Watts as St Helens North's Labour candidate for Parliament have been named. However, despite speculation to the contrary, they were not drawn from an all-female shortlist.

National party officials were believed to be considering imposing women-only rules on local activists but were dissuaded from such a move by senior local officials.

Council leader Barrie Grunewald and former mayor Andy Bowden are the highest-profile local figures to put their names forward.

A hustings will take place behind closed doors on Sunday, February 8 after which a decision will be announced.

Conor McGinn, the son of a former Sinn Féin councillor and political advisor to shadow Northern Ireland Secretary Vernon Coaker, is

Rosa Battle

Andy Bowden

Barrie Grunewald

Conor McGinn

Mark Russell

also among the frontrunners.

On Labour's National Executive Committee, Mr McGinn is 30 and is married with a young son. He previously worked in the charity sector.

Coun Grunewald, who has served as council leader since 2012 and lives in Rainhill with his wife and children. He counts Shaun Woodward, who will stand down as St Helens South's MP at May's election, among a string of well-known supporters.

Surprisingly, Liverpool mayor Joe Anderson, who has had numerous spat with Coun Grunewald over the past 12 months, has also lent his support, as has police and crime commissioner Jane Kennedy and MP Maria Eagle.

Coun Grunewald is hoping to persuade Labour members to back his bid for Westminster by holding meetings at the homes of individual activists over the coming fortnight.

Coun Bowden is the council's current cabinet member for the public health has enjoyed a long career in local government, working as an advisor to Mr Watts.

A local of Blackbrook, he served as St Helens mayor on 2013/14, when he was hailed by TV star and Thatto Heath lad Johnny Vegas as "the coolest mayor in Britain!".

Other nominees are:

Mark Russell; the chief executive of the Church Army in Sheffield. A law graduate, the 31-year-old leads an organisation of 300 Christian evangelists.

Manchester councillors Louisa Jones and Rosa Battle; a Manchester councillor, whose father is the ex-deputy council leader in Manchester.

Free travel for St Helens residents

StHelens Council is always looking for ways to help you save money, get fit and make a change, so why not look at a new way to travel?

Not only would swapping your car to using the train or bus mean you could get a little more exercise, you could also save yourself hundreds of pounds each year. Cycling or walking will help you even more and that's where the Travelwise Personal Travel Plan (PTP) comes in!

sors have lots of great information including bus and train timetables, cycling and walking routes, fares, hints and tips. We've also got incentives that can help you including bike lights, reflective snap bands, pedometers, tickets and of course, our free Saturday travel with 'Saveaway Saturday'.

As a council, we remain committed to developing sustainable alternatives to private car use in the town in order to combat congestion, pollution and climate change. What this also means, is that in addition to the investments being made to improve cycling and walking access within the region, you can now travel completely FREE on a Saturday.

The Zone A Saveaway ticket, wholly funded by the Local Sustainable Transport Fund (LSTF), is valid for various travel routes and as Councillor Richard McCauley, Cabinet Member for Regeneration, Housing, Planning and Community Safety says, "we're hoping to see an increase in the number of people using the bus on these days as it may encourage those who usually drive to take the bus to save time and money. Plus, with Travelwise's Personal Travel Plan means you can access help and support all the way to ensure you get the best possible journey for you."

If you are yet to take advantage of the "Saveaway Saturday" offer, you're not too late! Simply cut out and complete the voucher displayed on this page and take to the Merseytravel office within the St Helen's town centre bus station. There, it will be exchanged for a Saveaway Saturday ticket for this coming Saturday, 31st January. The ticket is valid on all bus operators within the St. Helens area, and even some train routes too. Further details available online at www.sthelens.gov.uk/saturdaybus and other public transport information can be found using the route planner located at www.merseytravel.gov.uk or by calling 0151 236 7676.

To find out more about the Personal Travel Plans, find us at www.twitter.com/TravelwisePTP and or head to www.facebook.com/TravelWisePTPStHelens or you can email us at travelwise@jmp.co.uk or Freephone: 0800 066 2746.

Gill sends 'go vegan' message in new book

By CHARLES GRAHAM
charles.graham@jpress.co.uk
@CGrahamWIG

A Garswood author's debut book comes with a strong dietary message.

Because The Girl Who Sees Stories hopes to encourage young readers to follow its writer Gill Torres's example and go vegan.

So where better to have her local book-signing than at the Nooch vegan and gluten-free food store in Wigan town centre.

The 34-year-old writer, who was raised in Garswood and attended Winstanley College before moving to Liverpool, will appear for a book-reading and signing event at 2pm on Sunday, February 8.

The picture book, created in conjunction with illustrator Ilan Sheady, aims to inspire children to eat a healthy plant-based diet, free from animal products.

For the growing number of parents already opting in to the lifestyle, The Girl Who Could See Stories fills a big gap in the market.

Gill says it is a great way to introduce young children to the concept of healthy, ethical living. It also teaches them about where their food comes from.

Followers of this lifestyle eat a diet rich in unprocessed, usually organic foods, free from meat and dairy.

Fans say it is an exceptionally healthy way to live. It has been around for a lot longer than the fast food industry and is enjoying a dramatic resurgence at the moment.

Singer Jennifer Lopez and boxer David Haye are the latest in a long line of celebrity converts. With this in mind and with the vegan market ever growing, freelance writer Gill chose to self-publish the title, under the brand name Real Magic Publishing.

The money to print was raised by selling pre-ordered copies of the book on crowdfunding site kickstarter.com.

She said: "We were able to raise £4,000 in donations and pre-orders on kickstarter, in just 30 days, so the demand for the book is definitely there. The world is changing. People are opening their eyes to the many benefits of a natural diet and lifestyle.

"I switched to a plant-based, wholefoods diet less than two years ago but I will never go back because I feel so much healthier and happier as a result.

"I am not alone. I meet so many people newly converted to veganism by how amazing it makes them feel." The book can be bought via www.real-magicpublishing.com.

Don't just take our word for it..
see what one of our customers says about us here at The Cottage Tandoori..

The Cottage Tandoori Restaurant in Rainford is one of our favourite restaurants in St Helens..

"We have eaten here on many occasions as a family over the last few years.

It's a lovely restaurant, not too expensive, with a great atmosphere and friendly and welcoming staff. Ali and all the staff are happy to go out of their way to make your meal a lovely evening out.

The owner here Mr Hannan always makes himself available for a chat - The Cottage Tandoori is part of our Village now and they are visited regularly by both local people living in the Rainford area together with visitors from other parts of St Helens and the surrounding areas.

They have been nominated by our St Helens Council and hold one of their 5 star hygiene awards.

They have recently had a lovely refurbishment too making a meal here even more of a treat.

I would like to recommend a visit to The Cottage Tandoori anytime.. if you like good quality Indian food in a lovely setting, not too expensive - make sure to pay them a visit soon.

Mrs N Rainford.

BUYING HOUSES FOR OVER 77 YEARS

Sickening attack on groom-to-be

A LOUT from St Helens has been jailed for two years after punching a groom-to-be so hard he struggled to make his marriage vows and had to eat his wedding breakfast through a straw.

Philip Bagnall was dressed as Elvis on his night out in Ashton town centre last year when Joshua McCormick, right, inflicted horrific injuries on him in a completely unprovoked attack, Liverpool Crown Court heard.

The 20-year-old assailant from Ashurst Drive, St Helens, was yesterday given a two-year custodial sentence in a young offenders' institution.

The hearing was told Mr Bagnall was innocently standing outside Rainbow Taxis on Wigan Road after his fun night out with friends and relatives when he was attacked.

McCormick punched him once in the face knocking him backwards and he fell to the ground hitting his head.

He suffered multiple fractures to both jaws and had to undergo surgery during a five-day hospital stay.

He was released in time for his wedding two weeks after the early morning assault, but had trouble making his wedding vows and his speech and had to have his expensive wedding breakfast liquidized so he could drink it through a straw.

He and his bride Vicky also had to cancel their honeymoon as they could no longer afford it because he was off work and was not fit enough, said Graham Pickavance, prosecuting.

Liverpool Crown Court heard that the then 19-year-old McCormick had drunk five cans of lager, six Jaeger bombs and six vodka red bulls.

"That is an astonishing amount of alcohol. It is no wonder you were behaving badly," said Judge Brian Lewis.

He told McCormick, who admitted inflicting grievous bodily harm: "You hit him hard to the face for reasons which aren't really clear. It was completely unprovoked, he went backwards onto the ground where he hit his head.

"You said to the probation officer 'I'm lucky I didn't kill him'. You never said anything truer. This court is only too familiar with manslaughter cases that arose in the same way," said Judge Lewis, who pointed out that the victim had not been causing any problem for anyone.

McCormick handed himself in and was arrested after CCTV images of suspects appeared in the media.

Judge Lewis said: "This was completely unprovoked violence which people are sick of seeing on our streets."

Graham Pickavance, prosecuting, said that 33-year-old Mr Bagnall had gone out for his stag night to Belle Vue dog races and then came back to Ashton so they could carry on celebrating.

He was wearing an Elvis suit that his friends had got for him and it was while he was waiting for a taxi home in Wigan Road in Ashton in the early hours of November 15 last year that the attack took place. His jaw was broken on both sides and he had a total of three fractures.

He was not able to enjoy his wedding properly and also had to be careful how much he drank because of the tablets he was having to take.

He had to stay off work from the plastics factory where he is employed because of his injuries and his wife had to take on extra shifts to make ends meet for them.

His painful injuries and swollen face also caused problems for him looking after their three children and particularly the youngest one in case his face was touched.

After the incident, a stranger, Kayleigh Williams, who was also waiting for a taxi home, voluntarily went with him in a cab to hospital.

Judge Lewis commended her public-spirited action and awarded her £300 from public funds.

McCormick has no previous convictions but cautions for possessing cocaine and criminal damage, voluntarily went to a police station and confessed. Steven Swift, defending, said that shaven-headed McCormick was a hard-working young man who was remorseful and ashamed.

More than an estate agent

The newest and one of the most progressive, forward thinking and innovative estate agents in the area, the team at Aspire are visionary and have a wealth of experience within the property market for both a sales and rentals of residential and commercial property.

With their in-house maintenance team and situated in the same building alongside Alison Financial, a well respected financial and mortgage advisor, they offer a range of services to clients literally "under one roof", making them the one-stop shop when it comes to buying, selling or renting.

A company spokesman said: "At Aspire we want to bring an element of choice to perspective sellers in allowing them to choose their own preferred method of sale, be it auction, online sales or conventional sales.

"We are the online agent with a shop front presence giving the client all the benefits, including attractive selling fees at online prices but with the security of a shop front and a place for prospective purchasers to visit.

"Should clients choose conventional sales then we can provide a first class professional service including comprehensive internet and newspaper marketing at a very competitive price.

"Finally for those wanting a quick sale, with potential completion within 28 days, then we offer our Auction service with the added bonus of no cost to the vendor.

"If you are a landlord looking for a tenant then why not make the most of our special offer of no finders fee for fully managed properties and also benefit from our exceptionally competitive management fee of 7.95 per cent.

"Alternatively we provide a Tenant Find only service at a very competitive price. Our forward thinking approach coupled with Internet and direct marketing will ensure your investment gives you the very best return. In addition potential tenants will be attracted to us because of our low price registration and referencing fees.

"Aspire is definitely the agent that gives choice, taking estate agency in 2015 to a new level. We are more than an estate agent - come and try us for yourself!"

FOUR BEDROOM MODERN DETACHED HOUSE WITH TWO BATHROOMS

Care For Some Extra Muscle? With the amount of living space available in this modern detached house there is certainly room for a gym. Maybe you would use this extra space for something a little more gentle, a study, a playroom, the choice is yours. With four bedrooms and two bathrooms the property clearly lends itself to a family, and the good size breakfast kitchen adds strength. The corner plot situation provides plenty of space outside for even more gymnastics! epc C73

4 BEDROOM

Oakdene Court, Rainhill £399,995  This property ticks all the boxes. This home has four bedrooms and a garden you can play football in (okay, admittedly 5 a side). It is also situated in the catchment area of some of the best schools in Merseyside. That same garden is the perfect venue for barbeques and Pimms! Maybe it is time to relax and enjoy the finer things in life, a lovely kitchen, a separate dining room comfortably seating eight in which to entertain, or a chance to travel to Liverpool or Manchester by train or car. A classic house any family can call a home. D66	Howards Ln, Eccleston POA  Well Proportioned and Well Positioned! This substantial four double bedroomed detached home has so many features for you to see that a viewing is a must. The rooms on the ground floor are larger than might be expected, the breakfast kitchen is a great place to start the day, with the conservatory a lovely place to finish the day. The gardens make for an attractive and functional space, with the property having potential for growth (subject to planning) With 1500 sq. ft. of space just imagine the family get-togethers! EPC D63	Sandfield Cres, Whiston £285,000  Quiston Grange is a select development of high quality homes. The WREN has been designed with the family in mind with four bedrooms, but the American style kitchen and dining area at the rear of the property is an ideal place to entertain. A three storey property is becoming more and more popular, in this instance the entire top floor is designed to accommodate parents who need their own space, the en-suite may be spacious but the master bedroom is CAPACIOUS – the choice of how you utilise it is yours, flexibility is key, masses of wardrobe space, plenty of room for a train set, or finally the home your shoe collection deserves! C80	West Park Rd, West park £265,000  Great family home! or should we call this bespoke detached bungalow a Tardis? There are two/three or four bedrooms and three bathroom / shower rooms, but the big issue is the amount of living space, there is loads spread across the property. It's fair to say that you will spend most of your time in the back of the property which has an all in one living space. Viewing highly recommended. E48	Park Road South, N-L-W £239,995  What a Spread! This substantial detached bungalow has masses of accommodation. With five bedrooms and two bathrooms the property is ideally placed to house a family, hiding the kids away in several of the spacious rooms. The situation of the property means it is set back from the road with a large driveway, which leads of course to the garage. All of the rooms, be it living, kitchen or bedrooms are on the larger side, as we said, everything is spread out. D58
Berkeley Ct, N+W £185,000  Massive Cornering On Offer! This four bedroom detached bungalow is set on a corner plot within this select development of similar style properties. As you would imagine the ground floor accommodation lends itself to a family but at the same time various rooms can be used for various things. There is a large breakfast kitchen to support the family ideal. Large grounds and a double garage complete the picture. C72	Ecclesfield Rd, Eccleston £179,950  Almost on the Edge! This lovely and well extended semi-detached house is almost on the edge of St Helens with nothing but open fields stretching away around the bend! The property has an extension to the rear creating not only important extra living space but also a most useful utility room. There are three bedrooms as well as a fully functioning garage. D61	Westbrook Ave, Prescot £169,500  Did George Formby write a song about this house? Built in the Second World War period you could be leaning against the lamp post on the corner of the street, and we guess you could be waiting for a certainly little lady to go by! This detached property has it all, lots of potential, lots of space, in and out, as would be expected from that time. With a little imagination this could be turned into a great family home, oh me, oh my! D61	Breccia Gardens, Parr £165,000  A detached delight! As modern detached houses go this four bedroom example is delightful. The dining kitchen is worthy of particular mention being both spacious and well equipped. The integral garage again makes for even more useful space. C76	Dalehead Place, Moss Bank £154,950  This Detached Property has lots to offer to a growing family. The garden is ideal for the kids with the modern dining area and spacious lounge for the adults. The garage also provides somewhere to potter about. C76
Spinners Dr, Sutton £149,995  Home Spun Home! Situated on Spinners Drive this modern detached house is tailor-made as a family home. There are three bedrooms, two bathrooms, two reception rooms and a family size garden. The estate is proving to be a popular place to live so now is your chance. C70	Farndon Ave, Sutton Manor £149,950  Classy Touches! This semi detached house has been converted to create a lovely four bedroom home with two bathrooms. There is potential for a teenage suite with its own access! The kitchen and both bathrooms are modern and the property boasts a lovely garden to the rear. Added into the mix is a conservatory for even more space, a nice touch. EPC D67	Marylebone Ave, Lea Green £149,950  So what are you going to do with the garden? This three bedroom semi detached house has far more than its fair share of land. The rear garden could well be a full blown allotment, it could be ideally suited to a summer house, it could just be left as a play area. The possibilities are endless. Add to this the modern fixtures and fittings found inside the property and you have something well worth viewing. E46	Stirling Cres, Sherdley Park £139,950  A neat and tidy example of a family home. With three bedrooms this semi detached house has the added bonus of some very nice ground floor accommodation all of which is benefitting a family. The garage can still be used as just that, and the gardens are well kept. The location of course is about as handy as it could be, with school, station and link road all within easy reach. D61	Whiteside Ave, Haydock £130,000  Opportunity Knocks! This is a great opportunity to acquire a three bedrooms semi detached house in this popular part of Haydock. The property boasts a spacious ground floor and has a workshop/ garage to the rear. There are some very nice touches within the house and we are sure it is ideally placed to become a great family home. Knock, knock, have a look! D65

Packing a big punch

Comedian Dave Spikey brings tour to St Helens

COMEDY

BY GREG FARRIMOND
greg.farrimond@press.co.uk
@GFarrimondWIG

Dave Spikey is all set for one of the most hectic months his career has seen in well over a decade. The Bolton funnyman is reuniting with his old Phoenix Nights castmates to revive the sitcom for a one-off stage show for Comic Relief in Manchester. But once the 15-night comeback is complete, he will pick up on his own tour which started last year, including a St Helens date at the Citadel on March 5. Explaining the peculiar format to his show, Spikey told the Reporter: "I project punchlines on the big screen so when the audience comes in before the show they see them and my gamble is to make them laugh at them. "The rest of the show is working into how I'll do that and how a comedian will re-direct you and elaborate and exaggerate and it's about trying to divert you off that path so that when it hits you all you're expectations are shattered. "It's odd but it really works but the whole show is about examining what it is a punchlines and how newspaper headlines are punchlines." "I'm really pleased with how it's gone, I've got some really good reviews. "I finished it in November and since then I've been lining up and rehearsing for Phoenix Nights. "That finishes on February 16 then I've got a couple of weeks off before this starts which will give me time to gather my thoughts and have a lie down!" The Citadel seats 161 people which is an audience size Spikey says is ideal for his style of comedy. "They are intimidating but if you're confident in your stuff and you're at home and relaxed they can be the best ever," he said. "You feel the intimacy and it's as if I'm in a pub chatting with my mates and hopefully they get that same feeling because you can see their eyes. "A lot of comedy is in that and that's why I'm not a fan of arena comedy. "It's in the eyes and the face and they'll get that in a small theatre where they wouldn't get it in a big one." ■ Tickets from the Citadel box office on 01744 735436.

SPOTLIGHT ON Prescot

Prescot Producers' Market returns to Eccleston Street this Saturday from 9am until 2pm.

As usual, you can look forward to an array of colourful and tempting locally produced food and drink as well as hand crafted goods.

Prescot Producers' Market is a popular monthly feature of life in the town, attracting shoppers from near and far.

It is a great opportunity for local independent traders to sell their wares and has even helped new businesses establish themselves.

For visitors to the town centre it is an exciting opportunity to sample delicious, locally produced food and drink and support local retailers.

The Producers' Market takes place every first Saturday of the month. If you run a local business and want to get involved with the market you can call 0151 443 2298 for more information. Knowsley-based businesses or residents may even be eligible for free stall space. The Launderette on Dane Court Shopping Centre has re-opened. Tumblers Launderette and Cleaning Services, will come to you to pick up your wash, bedding and curtains, launder and return them to you.

They will also clean your home. As an opening offer, Tumblers are offering until Valentines Day, 10 per cent off all current prices. There is nothing Tumblers won't have a go at cleaning. They are open six days with late nights in the week. So make sure you use Tumblers services, you will be glad you did.

Buying a kitchen, bedroom or bathroom is probably one of the biggest purchases you will make and getting as much help as possible is vital.

At Kitchen Bedroom and Bathroom Centre on the roundabout at Prescot they will strive to help you along this whole journey. From the ideas that you undoubtedly have, through the planning, the choosing of doors, work-tops, sinks, appliances, and right through to the fitting.

So no matter what shape your room is, how big your family, the size of the space available, they sit down with you and plan a room that is perfect for your needs. Using different shapes and curves, woods or glosses, granite or marble whatever your dream is – they can make it come true.

OUR COMMENT

Report must now prompt action

Ofsted's latest report into childrens' services in St Helens makes for uncomfortable reading. Inspectors write that the department requires urgent improvement if it is to meet nationally acceptable standards. Among their chief concerns are the poor achievements of children in care, that too many children were subjected to child protection enquiries and that adoption was not achieved quickly enough. Worryingly, domestic violence services were labelled "under-developed". In a separate inspection, Ofsted criticised the Central Link childrens' centre, branding it inadequate. Responding to that criticism, council chiefs blamed funding cuts. That, however, won't reassure concerned parents who only want to know the services the council provides is up to standard. Coun Sue Murphy, the cabinet member for schools, says in today's Reporter the council is under no illusions that more needs to be to improve. Such sentiments can only be to be applauded. However, in the broader context of the recent criticism of the borough's secondary schools, many will demand clear and decisive action to bring about improvements sooner rather than later.

YOUR LETTERS

ELECTION Deselection wrong in so many ways

I wish to express my disappointment and unease at the deselection of Coun Geoff Almond (Reporter, January 14). For a few years he has worked tirelessly on behalf of the people of Fingerpost and to his credit he's a perfect gentleman; everyone you speak to says so. My faith in the political system has been badly shaken. I am 71-years-old and for the first time since I've been eligible to vote I do not know which candidate or which party to vote for. I hope Coun Almond will stay involved with the people of Fingerpost and I can assure you this is the feeling of many of the people not just myself.

Bette Yates MBE
Fingerpost

As a town centre voter and one-time Labour supporter, let me warmly endorse Eric's Guest's call to the people of Hardshaw, Town Centre Ward that they abstain from voting Labour in the May elections in protest at the stabbing in the back of Coun Geoff Almond, who has served us so well. I'm reminded of Shakespeare's play Julius Caesar in which Caesar was stabbed by Brutus whom he too had looked on as a friend. Caesar's "Et tu, Brute!" becomes Geoff's "And you, Ms Carole-Anni!"

Kevin Heneghan
North Road, St Helens
Your article about Coun Geoff Almond's treatment has caused reverberations around the town. The most common word I hear used to describe the way Coun Geoff Almond was treated is disgusting. Coun Almond is well-respected in the community and is one of the most hardworking Helens Council to provide free advice through money make-over courses so people can take control of their personal finances. The only hope the ordinary person in the street has of reclaiming some of that wealth is through education and by that I mean financial literacy and not formal education. People need to become investors instead of consumers and create a financial safety net so they aren't vulnerable to taking out debt which just makes the lender richer and the borrower poorer.

COMMENT

Council leader

Barrie
GrunewaldReport will be acted on

Make no mistake, we'll be acting on the issues that earned us a 'requires improvement' rating during the recent Ofsted report into our children's care services. A nine-strong team spent three weeks in the borough in November last year – looking at the experiences of children and young people who have needed – or still need – help and/or protection. It included children and young people who are looked after and young people leaving care and starting their lives as young adults.

But it's worth pointing out that this rating confirms there are no widespread or serious failures that leave children being harmed or at risk of harm. It also underlines the fact that the welfare of looked after children is both safeguarded and promoted. We're under no illusions that more improvements need to be made – but it is also the case that children in St Helens are safer today than they were when the last inspection was undertaken in June 2012.

The new inspection framework is considerably more challenging and it's also worth noting that no local authorities in the North West region have been judged to be 'good' since its introduction. The report praised St Helens Council's support for newly qualified social workers, its shortened care proceedings (24 weeks – against a national average of 31 weeks) and the help we give to adopters. It also approved of our direct work with children and individual therapeutic interventions – such as play therapy – to support adopters and concluded that 'placement stability' for children was good. We will of course be complying fully with the requirements of the report and seek continued improvements in our service – in the interests of our children and young people.

We're planning to introduce new 20mph speed limit zones in the borough – as part of a campaign to get people fitter. Funding from our Public Health team will be used to create restricted areas at Burnage Avenue Estate, Bold; the Concourse Way/Berrys Lane area in Parr; the Forest Road area, Bold; the Gaskell Street area, Parr and the Ridgewood Drive/Ravenstone Drive area in Sutton. Research shows that traffic volumes and vehicle speed can deter people from walking and cycling – particularly women, children and elderly people. Very often it's simply peoples' perceptions of injury risk that deters them from walking or cycling – or letting their children go to school on their bike.

Lower traffic speeds create better perceptions of safety and, of course, reduce the actual danger too. People with limited or restricted mobility also find access and travel to places less restrictive in areas with slower speed limits. By reducing the speed limit to 20 mph, we hope it will provide more opportunities for walking and cycling in these areas – and increase levels of physical activity.

Finally, and thinking about the weather forecast, I'd be grateful if everyone could keep an eye on elderly and or vulnerable neighbours over the next few days. According to the Met Office we're due for cold weather, winds and snow. In this sort of weather we know that older people and people in poor health tend to stay indoors. And while this is sensible, it's worth remembering that some people may need help getting to a hospital or GP appointment, with shopping or prescription fetching, or just someone to talk to. If you know someone in this situation, and most of us do, think about what you can do to help out.

ROAD TEST – FORD FOCUS ESTATE

It's hard to ignore the Focus Estate

HOT on the heels of the Focus hatch, Ford has released a thoroughly revamped version of its practical and versatile estate variant.

Unlike with some model updates where it's impossible to tell what's been changed, with Ford's revamped Focus Estate there's no mistaking old for new here.

The first thing that greets you is Ford's new corporate nose – think Aston Martin for the people.

But there's more to the Focus than just some added bling, as the car now packs some impressive safety and convenience kit, tweaked ride and handling characteristics plus engines that are more than worthy of Ford's hype.

In keeping with the Fiesta and Mondeo, the Focus sports a new nose that looks suspiciously similar to something you might find on an Aston Martin.

Whatever your view, the bold new snout is a genuine head-turner and does much to boost the car's premium look and feel. And it's this angle that Ford is most keen to develop, as the firm aspires to move its models increasing upmarket.

As the wagon of the family you can expect the Focus Estate to swallow pretty much anything you throw at it.

The car's low loading lip, easy open tailgate and flat load bay all conspire to make life exceptionally easy when shifting large or heavy items.

This versatile theme continues inside the cabin, with both front and rear occupants offered good levels of space.

If you don't fancy a conventional people carrier or SUV, the Focus Estate could easily fulfil the bulk of your family-related duties with ease.

It's not down to luck that the Focus is routinely held up as a benchmark when it comes to driver enjoyment, as Ford expends a considerable amount of effort in this department. The car's facelift status has resulted in a raft of detailed tweaks to enhance the experience.

Wasteful Town made to pay for their misses

By ANDY MOFFATT

NORTH WEST COUNTIES LEAGUE

WEST DIDSBURY AND CHORLTON 3 ST HELENS TOWN 0

St Helens Town returned home to Merseyside empty handed after a below par performance in Manchester.

Town had the first effort of note on goal midway through the half when Jack McKay crossed for Cole Ashton who was in more space than he realised but his first time header went just wide of the left hand upright.

After half an hour West Didsbury took the lead as centre back Callum Schofield broke up an attack and was allowed to advance to the edge of the Town area his effort was blocked and the ball eventually broke out to Adam Hilton on the right of the box and he curled the ball home into the top left hand corner of the net.

The visitors had a good chance to level when Kris Bell was released by a through ball for a counter attack he knocked the ball past Schofield whose industrial attempt to hack him down came to nothing as Bell rode his challenge and Town were in two on one with skipper Andy Gillespie in support only to hear the referees shrill whistle halting play for reasons only known to the match official.

West had a chance to extend their lead before the break when Scott Jones centred from the left but Nic Evangelinos's volley went wide of the left hand post.

St Helens had an early chance to level just after the break when Hamish Falconer released Bell but the strikers' effort was pushed wide of the right hand post when a cross to the far post may have seen the visitors level. Town were made to pay for their wastefulness when Evangelinos found space and saw his initial effort well saved by Rory Crowther in the visitors goal but the visiting custodian could do nothing about the same players rebound which found the net to double the hosts lead.

Salt was rubbed in the Town wounds midway through the second half as a cross from the right wing was volley home by substitute Jordan Poole to round off the scoring and secure the spoils for the home side.

Town now have a fortnight's break until their next fixture as they welcome Merseyside rivals Bootle to Brocstedes Park next Saturday, February 7 with a 3pm kick off.

Samantha impresses at cross country showdown

It was athletes rather than horses who did the circuits of Pontefract Racecourse at the weekend when the Northern Athletics Cross-country Championships were held on a flat but soggy course.

A small group of St Helens Sutton Athletics Club members travelled to test themselves against the course and the quality opposition and large fields.

Samantha Price ran in the u15s girls event covering the 4km course in 18.47. Rachel and Maria McGoldrick competed in the U20s womens race over 5.6km, finishing in 22.50 and 24.15 for 40th and 51st places.

Gemma Connolly was the only senior lady to make the trip, finishing the 8km race in 33.16 for 47th place.

Two u13s boys can be commended for making the trip to run in their 3.1km event, Charlie Roberts who ran 13.06 and Michael Brussels 13.51.

The senior men were the only group to have a team competing. Led by Tom Griffiths who finished 133rd, a commendable position in a field of over 700 starters, running the 12km in 44.18. John Greenall was next in 48.30, followed by Barry Graney in 51.50, Peter Johnson in 55.19, Andrew O'Connor in 58 minutes flat and Anthony Doyle in 70.43.

The team finished in 47th position.

Gareth nets a hat-trick in 8-0 verdict for Sutton

Sutton Heath stayed top of Premier Division with an impressive 8-0 away win over Bird'ith Hand. With goals from Gareth Smith (3), Ste Burrows (2), Daryl McCartney, Daniel Hand and Brad Coy. Sidac had a 6-1 away vs Carborundum, Carl Shaw got two goals with other goals from Stuart Roberts, Jon Powell, Chris Heyes and Evan Dunleavy.

West Park battled back from 3-0 down at half time, to win 4-3 and Clock Face Miners won 5-1 away from home.

With Prescott Reserves not playing this weekend Ormskirk and New Street Reserves were able to pull some points back on them with both having home wins.

Carr Mill are just behind them after winning 7-1 against Par Rangers.

Skipper Kearns leads way with three tries

RUGBY UNION

MANCHESTER MEDICS 7 LIVERPOOL ST HELENS 47

Liverpool St Helens produced a first-rate display to get the job done at Manchester Medics, returning to Moss lane with a try bonus point to keep them in contention at the top of South Lancashire/Cheshire One.

A hat-trick of tries from skipper Phil Kearns and scores from Greg Smith, Ian Stanley, Jake Hodson and Andrew Rawsthorne saw them home.

This week LSH make the short trip to West Park. Kick off 2.15.

ALTRINCHAM 39 WEST PARK 15

Conditions favoured neither side with the home side in particular relying on pick and drive tactics by their well-drilled pack.

And despite Altrincham's position as league leaders,

West Park kept themselves in the game until the final stages of the game.

Park opened the scoring courtesy of scrum half Danny Green but the home side hit back soon after with a try from a series of rolling mauls.

They later took the lead after repeating the tactic to score a converted try. ot converted. The 12 point deficit was soon reduced by the visitors, as an decisive break and dummy by centre Liam Hill saw him scythe through the home defence to score an excellent try which Hunt converted.

The home side continued in their same vein, and once again scored a try through their forward drives.

With the final play of the first half West Park were awarded a penalty that was converted by winger Warren Hunt to reduce the margin to only seven points at half time and give the visitors belief that they could still get something from the game.

Unfortunately for them, the first 20 minutes of the second half saw the home side dominate both possession and field position, and unable to get out of their own half Park conceded two further tries, one of which was converted to give Altrincham/Kersal a healthy and seemingly unassailable 17 point lead.

The home side proved determined and worthy opponents, and further possession by their forwards provided them with another try, this time under the posts, making for an easy conversion.

Defending champs demolish Wigan

By JOHN YATES

SAINTS 28 WIGAN WARRIORS 12

The defending Super League champions will be difficult to knock off their lofty perch on the evidence of a five-try demolition of neighbours Wigan at Langtree Park on Sunday.

But it would be foolhardy go completely overboard at the outcome of a pre-season friendly in which there was little at stake other than local pride and a further chance for players from both sides to wipe away winter cobwebs.

Having said that, Saints will take heart from an improved performance following the previous weekend's defeat at the hands of Widnes Vikings and can build on that ahead of the 2015 Super League season and their World Club Challenge showdown against South Sydney Rabbitohs on Sunday, February 22.

Head coach Keiron Cunningham will also have been buoyed by Saints' first-half performance, particularly the contribution from an awesome-looking set of forwards who snuffed out any early Wigan threat and helped power the side to a commanding 22-0 interval lead.

They may have been guilty of taking their foot off the accelerator on the resumption and allowed the Warriors to cut the deficit to 10 points on the hour mark but in the end they were worthy winners - a point acknowledged later by Wigan boss Shaun Wane.

Wane looks to have more problems to solve than his Saints' counterpart at this stage of the season but at the same time Cunningham will relish tougher tests lie ahead once league points are at stake.

He said: "Like last week, I wasn't too concerned with the result. I just wanted to see an improvement in our form - and I think I got that, particularly in the first half.

"I was also pleased by the manner in which the boys hung on in there during the second period when Wigan had far more of the possession.

"They tested us defensively but we held firm."

Joe Greenwood, who scored two of Saints' five tries, again showed why Cunningham has already tipped him as a star of the future.

"Joe was outstanding and to be honest he has surprised me," said Cunningham. "I knew he would be a good player but I thought he would be 12 months away.

"He has done well against one of the best teams in the competition and young players like Joe leave me facing some tough decisions ahead

'Joe was outstanding and to be honest he has surprised me' of the opening league fixture against the Catalans Dragons."

An early flare-up, which led to Wigan prop Dominic Crosby being placed on report, set the tone for the early exchanges in which no quarter was given or asked.

Saints looked the sharper in possession and once Greenwood had blasted his way over in the 10th minute they assumed complete control.

Winger Adam Swift scorched in down the left 11 minutes later after Jordan Turner had snapped up a wayward Wigan pass before Atela Vea strolled in unchallenged for his first Saints' try.

Makinson then plunged over in the right-hand corner from Jonny Lomax's inch-perfect off-load on the stroke of half-time as well as taking his goal tally to three from four attempts.

Wigan threatened to turn the game on its head with a spirited second-half fight back, in which tries from John Bateman (45 mins) and substitute Connor Farrell (60 mins) and two Matty Smith goals, but Saints wrapped up victory 10 minutes from time via Greenwood's second try and Makinson's fourth goal.

Atelea raring to taste life at the top after relegation woe

Not many rugby players get the chance to sign for the Super League champions while playing for the worst side in the top-flight.

But new Saints back-rower Atelea Ve'a is desperate to prove his worth after impressing during his year at the London Broncos in 2014.

The 28-year-old, who enjoyed playing at Langtree Park so much last year that he applauded the home fans on his way off the pitch, admits he was "shocked" when he found out Saints wanted to sign him.

He said: "It feels awesome to be here and I'm settling in really well. I know what I've been through to get here and that's why I'm so excited."

"I was shocked, to be honest, when I heard Saints wanted to sign me. My plan last season had been to go to London, play a season, make some friends, do a bit of sightseeing and go home."

"But a few clubs over here then expressed an interest in me and when I found out St Helens wanted to sign me it became an easy decision. I know a few players who have played here and really enjoyed it. I can't wait to get started."

Ve'a, a Tonga international, admits the departure of pals Willie Manu and Sia Soliola leave him with big boots to fill.

But he says he has been mightily impressed with Saints' production line of young players and reckons they are more than ready to fill the void.

He said: "I know Sia was a real fans' favourite, but I just have to play my own game. I'm proud that Saints have looked at me as someone who could do that kind of job."

"To be honest, I was guilty of coming over here from Oz and thinking the NRL was much better. But even the young kids at Saints are amazing. The talent is incredible."

"Joe Greenwood has really impressed me, and Andre Savelio too. If the likes of those two stay here then the standard of Super League can only go up."

Ve'a struggled with injuries Down Under – where he played for Cronulla Sharks, Melbourne Storm and St George Illawarra.

But he's confident that his body will stand up to the test of another season of Super League and reckons it's vital Saints continue looking forward.

He said: "I've had a tough time with injuries. Rugby league is a tough, tough sport. But that makes it sweeter for me to finally get to this level."

"Not to take anything away from what the boys achieved last season, but 2015 is a fresh start for everyone. But hearing about the success here last year just makes us new blokes even more hungry to achieve the same things."

"I was cheering Saints on back in Oz during the Grand Final. It looked like a crazy atmosphere. I was telling my mates back home that Super League was like that every week!"

Jon Wilkin has told how he would never have accepted the armband had predecessor and "best mate" Paul Wellens not given him his backing.

The 31-year-old told of his pride at being named the new skipper – especially at a time when Saints are Super League champions.

He also told how the forthcoming World Club Challenge against NRL champions South Sydney kept him going during his recovery from a dislocated shoulder.

Wilkin said: "It feels amazing to be captain, but surreal too. It's not something you ever set out to achieve, but when it comes it's pretty special and it's something I'll cherish."

"For me to become captain at a time when Saints are booming and the club has just won the Grand Final and League Leader's Shield is very special."

"The first thing I did when I was offered the job was speak to Paul [Wellens]. I told him there was no way I would want to do it unless he was happy with it. We both care a lot about the development of our club."

"Paul's a fantastic leader and will continue to be. He's my best mate. We have already taken on much of the leadership within the team and we talk a lot about the club to try to ensure the standards are kept as high as possible."

"I take comfort from the fact that going into this job I've still got Paul around me. He's like my comfort blanket!"

Wilkin admits he wasn't surprised when he was asked to become captain, despite sharing the Langtree Park dressing room with other plum candidates like James Roby.

And the back-rower reckons another golden era for the club could be on the way – as long as the senior players continue to share the responsibility to lead.

"In recent years St Helens has had a couple of distinct eras of success," he said.

"There was the Joynt and Newlove era and then Long, Cunningham and Sculthorpe. The scrutiny had been on me, Paul Wellens and James Roby to produce something similar and last year we did."

"It was perhaps even more

Jon proud to be new captain - with his best mate's backing

At a pre-season press conference Saints headcoach Keiron Cunningham, left, named as his new captain Jon Wilkin, who only accepted with the blessing of former skipper Paul Wellens, right satisfying too because it was achieved under very different circumstances. A few years back we just had the best team, which is always handy, but last year we had to work incredibly hard to get the best out of our fit players. That was just the start too.

"A strong winning culture is what's defined my time at this club - in those moments when a victory looks most unlikely we find a way to win.

"That shows how adaptable we are and shows that we don't just rely on two or three players for our success."

Wilkin reckons maintaining that winning culture is key

It feels amazing to be captain, but surreal too. It's something I'll cherish to Saints' future success, but admits teams will be gunning for his side this year.

He said: "Me and Paul Wellens are not going to be around forever. So, as well as looking after the standards at this club, the leadership group must nurture the younger players to ensure it carries on when we're gone.

"Teams are going to be gunning for us this year, there's no doubt about it. Teams are going to want to fly into us at the start of the year and it's our job to take the challenge back to them. With the new Super League structure we're expecting one of the most intense starts to the season we've ever seen."

And Wilkin, who missed the end of last season after suffering a dislocated shoulder, is refreshingly balanced when discussing his disappointment at missing out and his subsequent rehabilitation.

He said: "Selfishly, it was tough for me to have to watch the Grand Final from the sidelines, but I also took a lot of enjoyment from seeing those young guys lift the trophy.

"When I realised I would need surgery on my shoulder my focus during the rehab was on the next big game on my horizon - and that was the World Club Challenge.

"I wasn't so blinkered that I was unable to put my rehab into the context of the wider world though.

"Getting up to go swimming every morning isn't exactly difficult!"

Saints' mouth-watering World Club Challenge showdown with South Sydney Rabbitohs may still be a few weeks away but the 'sold out' signs are likely to go up sooner rather than later.

It reflects the kind of interest which the competition - now extended to include three Anglo-Aussie fixtures - is generating and is a far-cry from the reception it received when re-introduced at the beginning of the new Millennium.

Initially, the Australian clubs didn't seem to give it the status it warranted and treated it as such, but that won't be the case when the Rabbitohs arrive in St Helens if the thoughts of one-club man Ben Lowe are anything to go by.

The 29-year-old prop or second rower told the club's website that they are "preparing diligently" for the clash and "hungry for more success" to add to their NRL crown.

And he insisted that they had no intention of taking Super League opposition for granted, setting the stage for a blockbuster encounter which will hopefully lift the roof off Langtree Park.

Still on the subject of the World Club Challenge, I can't really believe that 14 years have elapsed since Saints toppled a star-studded Brisbane Broncos side at the Reebok Stadium in Bolton.

The date, January 26, 2001, and a night which those among a 16,041 fans present will not forget.

Saints were rank outsiders against a team which included superstars Darren Lockyer, Wendell Sailor and skipper Gordon Tallis, but rose to the occasion to clinch a memorable 20-18 victory.

Present coach Keiron Cunningham was one of Saints' heroes that night alongside the likes of Chris Joynt, Paul Sculthorpe, Paul Newlove and Sean Long and now has a chance to steer his home-town club to victory from the other side of the fence.

Keiron still remembers how cold it was that night with sleet and snow in the air. He will no doubt be hoping for similar conditions when the Rabbitohs come to town towards the end of next month!

When Jonny Lomax emerged from a first-half tackle against Wigan on Sunday - and was conspicuous by his absence in the final 40 minutes - feared heightened that his injury jinx had struck again.

But head coach Keiron Cunningham quickly put the fans' minds at rest when he declared: "Jonny took a knock in the back. It is nothing serious but I didn't want to risk him further and need him ready for the opening fixture against Catalans."

Jordan happy to play wherever needed

"To be honest though, we had so many players out through injury last year that it feels like we've made about eight new signings!"

Turner, who revealed that he and his teammates had jokingly dubbed Jon Wilkin as "the new John Terry" after his extravagant post-Grand Final celebrations, also backed his new skipper.

He said: "Jon played a massive role in the first half of last season and deserved to celebrate just as much as everyone else. It was very much a team effort - it wasn't all about the final.

"I think he'll make a fantastic captain - it's something Jon really deserves. I don't think much will change though because he was already one of our leaders both on and off the field."

And Turner told of the squad's steely determination to bring new head coach Keiron Cunningham his first piece of silverware in next month's World Club Challenge against NRL champions South Sydney.

"We will be taking it very seriously," he said.

"It's a trophy we really want to win - it's great for the club and the town in general - and it would be great for Keiron to win his first trophy early on in his career as head coach."

'I'M HAPPY TO PLAY WHERE I AM NEEDED'

Saints' 'Mr Reliable' loved filling in for team mates

By CHRIS AMERY

chris.amery@jpress.co.uk
@ChrisAmery2

Jordan Turner admits he "absolutely loved" filling in at loose forward last year - but hopes to be back in the centres this season.

The versatile 26-year-old drew plenty of plaudits for his displays in an unfamiliar position in the red vee in the second half of last season.

But, after two injury-plagued years, he hopes the squad has more luck with injuries this year.

He said: "I absolutely loved playing at loose forward last year, but the downside was that I was only there because other people were injured.

"I was really pleased with the faith the coaching staff showed in me to do that job though. It made my job that bit easier.

"I hope I don't have to do it again this year. I'll definitely start the season at centre but wherever Keiron needs me to play I'm happy to play.

"I might end up in the props if I'm not careful!"

Turner told how, despite ending last season on a "massive high, the Saints squad are not only looking to progress, but to make a stamp on Super League for a number of years.

He said: "2014 was great, but it's gone now. We need to ensure there are more highs in 2015.

"Although there is a new-look coaching team it's more of a natural progression and not a lot has changed. Keiron and Jamahl Lolesi had big roles to play when Nathan Brown was here anyway

"We've only had a couple of new additions to the squad too, so there's continuity on and off the pitch. We're a settled team at the minute. They're both fantastic players too (Travis Burns and Atelea Vea) so they are only going to improve us.
